

No Capo

Intro: Am G x 4 – Listen to Bob

Verse:

Am G
You were from the North, I was from the South
Am G
We were from opposite places, different towns
Am G
But I knew it was good and you knew it was too
Am G
So we moved together like a ball and chain
Am G
Minds becoming two halves of the same
Am G Am Am
It was real, but in shadows it grew

Short Chorus:

Am G Am G Am G Am G
Cos you've got a secret don't ya babe?

Verse:

Am G
I would've shouted loud and broken through
Am G
I would've given it all to belong to you
Am G Am G
But there were different plans, different rules
Am G
You said "where I'm from there is a lock and key
Am G
If you'd be so kind as to follow me
Am G Am Am
I will show you the way to the rest of my sins"

Long Chorus:

Am G Am G Am G Am G
Cos you've got a secret don't ya babe?
Am G Am G Am G
Yeah you, you got a secret don't ya babe?
Am G Am G Am G
And Ishould know
Am G Am G Am Am
Yeah I should know

Strum Harder.....

Verse:

So this room was damp where your sins laid
There was that smell in the air of an old place
That hadn't seen much daylight in years
And you threw me down, said, "If ya don't mind
I'm gonna leave you here until night time
Then we can do what we want my baby out of the spotlight."

Long chorus:

Cos you've got a secret don't ya babe?
Yeah you, you got a secret don't ya babe?
And I should know
Yeah I should know
For I'm your secret aren't I babe?

(fades out)

Yeah I'm your secret aren't I babe?
Aren't I babe?

To finish.....
Aren't I babe? X 3
